

Loraine Byrnes

CLERK

Loraine Byrnes is the Clerk and Practice Manager of Coram Chambers. Loraine has over 20 years of experience in the legal profession.

Loraine is the principal point of contact for both solicitors and clients wishing to brief Counsel at Coram Chambers. She can advise on all clerking and practice management enquiries associated with the Floor including availability and suitability of Counsel, specific areas of legal expertise and their associated professional fees.

Loraine is responsible for assisting the Barristers with the daily administration of their practices and diary management. Maintaining a strong relationship with clients is an integral part of her role as Clerk.

Loraine is a member of the NSW Bar Association, a member of NSW Barristers' Clerks Association and a certified Justice of the Peace.

Contact Loraine for further assistance or any general enquiries.
